BUSY BIDEFORD

Red Cross Work. There is a good healthy feeling of discontent here in town about Red Cross work, the folks realize that the time is ripe for them to form a society in town. The desire of many was to have a public meeting and elect officers but it was suggested that the night of the Musical Evening would be the best time as all the people would be there. After the concert the Bideford Red Cross will be inaugurated, putting us in line with the rest of the town. When so many of our own lads are in the trenches surely it is up to us to get right on the Red Cross Map.

On the Boom. It is gratifying to receive each week new subscriptions to the "News." This is conclusive proof that the folks here are in real earnest about keeping their little city alive by means of the Press. Someone asked last week about the Press Box and wanted to know if it was necessary to put their own name, also would it be possible to put something in the papers anonymously. Yes, friend, you must put down your name, if it is an item of news, not otherwise, poems, jokes, etc., need not necessarily bear your name, but in business or social matters the Newsman has to know on whose authority he prints the information. Of course he will not mention your name in print but requires it as a pledge of good faith. We received 3 excellent recipes this week and beg to thank the lady kindly. Newspaper cuttings containing matter of general interest will also be welcome. Please put in on Saturday ready for Monday's train at 7 a. m.

What's in a Name? A rose by any other name would smell as sweet, perhaps so but it would not sound so sweetly by any other name, for names have characters and a word like rose or skunk is like a living picture presenting vivid thoughts to the mind. What everyone wants to do is to change the name of our little town, not for sentimental but business reasons. Mail is constantly going astray, all kinds of unnecessary delays and annoyances are endured because of the similarity in our name to other places on the map. The Board of Trade, now gone to glory, offered a $5 prize for the best name, but so many and varied were the suggestions that nothing was arrived at and we are still Bideford today. It is high time we rose to the dignity of a town when a traveller coming up from town where a fellow was informed there Southern Alta here, was informed there was no such place on the map. Quite time; we don't exist; on the Red Cross map you cannot find us and in the ranks of progressive towns who have live organizations we are dead as doornails. Will someone help to revive us and place our town on the map with a brand new name. Please put your suggestions in the Press Box and we will deal with the matter later on; the name should be short and fairly easy to say, and if possible have some meaning to it. Any way we don't want a German name like Wilhelmina any longer when Kaiser Wilhelm is taking away from us the flower of our manhood to maim and cripple for life, aye perhaps to send them to a shameful imprisonment or a cruel death. Let us be patriotic and refuse to be called after the greatest tyrant the world has ever seen.

There was a large prairie fire last week when Pete Swanson's pasture was burned up and lots of the meadow destroyed. A man fired a straw pile and thus how it happened. Let us take warning by this.

When to Marry. A Bideford man was advising a young blood about marriage here in town. That is always a subject of personal interest and the Newsman heard these words, "A man should marry before he gets to his 32nd year, after that he begins to think and think seriously and the more he thinks about it the more serious the proposition appears, and the less likely he is to take the leap in the dark." True, O dear, quite true, it's an awful gamble, there's never any telling, but if the maids and bachelors want to hear all about taking a wife they should come on May 31st to the Schoolhouse and see for themselves.

We are indebted to a prominent citizen for the following verse, for our column: Advice to those who live in towns Where gossip never ceases,
Be careful how you pick your friends,
And don't pick them to pieces.

No, ladies and gents, the notices of glass houses, caps, etc., were not mine own they were given to me by (censored) right here in town, and I believe more are on the way, so beware!

The Car. He lives right in this democratic district, we are told. The Autocrat of the breakfast table is a delightful book of O. Wendell Holmes, but who will write as The Autocrat of the Auto? Who is the Car? Please don't all speak at once. Is there a Carlin too?

ON THE BOOM

Let's Boost Busy Bideford!

Women in Council. Ten ladies discussed the booming of Busy Bideford on "Sat." at the home of Mrs. Rexer, when the W.I. met at their monthly meeting. Red Cross activities formed the chief subject and on May 31st you can hear all about it. It was decided to hire or purchase a knitting machine for the soldiers' sox, a gift of money having been generously donated by a local bachelor, to the delight of the knitters. The problem of a community rest-room was brought up and it was the unanimous opinion of the members that a place for rest or retirement, would be an immense blessing for the country woman and her children when in for a day's shopping.

What to do with the baby, how to keep the kiddies quiet for half an hour while one goes visiting, where to open the mail in private, where to retire to 'fix' one's hair and tallow up a bit before going on a trip, where to sit down when the weather clerk is unkind and sends all the wild winds and blizzards he has in stock right into High St., where to get warm and defy Jack Frost's sudden spasmodic visitations, where to escape from the embarrassing attentions of the 'skeeter' and the warning embraces of old Sol, where to go of an evening when one feels lonesome, where to read the newspaper or magazine, where to discuss the world and his wife and make suggestions about war and politics that would be so valuable to our statesmen, to hold debating or literary society, friendly At Homes, Red Cross, Boy's & Girls Clubs, W. Institute, Ladies and Gents Aids, where in fact to realise that life holds other propositions than the dollars and dimes of everyday struggle, to realize that there is such a duty as citizenship and team work, to make your home town a lighter, better, happier place - the answer to all this is the community rest room and club house.

Dame Fashion. A lady, at the W. I., who looked charmingly attired in a smart summer frock, informed us that the whole cost was just $7.00! Bachelors, take note and when choosing a wife find the girl who is clever enough to dress well at less than a dollar. The western woman is certainly the limit, clever, capable, progressive, a wonderful type of being whom Solomon, who knew a lot about women, would find it necessary to 'praise'—yes she deserves it.

We hear there is a George Washington in Bideford, a man who never told a lie. Please let us know his name, we should like to present him with a dog as a token of our appreciation of his high moral standing.

We regret we are too full up to print the town mottoes, this week.

Note and Comment

"Sunny Alberta" must have slipped a cog, this year, and if the recent snow storms mean anything it looks as if winter had arrived. The Government has been urging the people to get in their supply of coal during the summer months, but the summer was so short this year that very few of us were enabled to put in enough coal to see us through the frosty season. The snow, on Monday, would have done a lot more good if the wind had not drifted it so much.

In view of the terrible conflict of the past few weeks, the demands on the Red Cross Society are becoming each day more serious. A special appeal is being made to all Red Cross workers to make an extra effort to keep up the supply of Red Cross necessities. As the conflict grows greater, so the needs of the Red Cross increases, and all the women are urged to co-operate to the utmost to
